Welcome to Oklahoma City!

We're thrilled to welcome the 173d Airborne Brigade Association Reunion to Oklahoma City in May.

If it's your first time in Oklahoma City, we think you're going to enjoy your stay. Travel and Leisure magazine listed OKC as one of the country's "friendliest travel destinations." As home to Tinker Air Force Base, we're especially proud of our military families and you'll be warmly welcomed by our residents.

There is a lot to do and see in OKC. You can take a boat ride on the Bricktown Canal and check out Bricktown's restaurants and entertainment options. It's a great vantage point to see the Land Run Monuments, the largest collection of heroic-sized, bronze statues in the world. If you're looking for excitement, head to the Boathouse District and go whitewater rafting at Riversport Rapids, our newest urban adventure. You can also kayak on the calmer waters of the Oklahoma River. The Historic Oklahoma City Stockyards is the place to head if you're looking for authentic western wear. We also invite you to visit the peaceful grounds of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum.

Most of all, we want you to know that we're glad you're here. Have a great event and we thank you for your service to our nation!

Best,
